

The State of Washington

Proclamation

WHEREAS, following what has been conceded as the dumbest play call in the history of the Super Bowl by Seahawks coaches;

WHEREAS, Seattle's Quarterback Russell Wilson puts the game on his back and blows it;

WHEREAS, the Seattle Seahawks now have a losing record of 1-2 in the Super Bowl;

WHEREAS, Seattle's Legion of Boom (read: fizzle) gave up a 10-point 4th Quarter lead, the largest come from behind victory in the second-half of the Super Bowl;

WHEREAS, the 12s, who have shown (obnoxious) team spirit promptly turned on their team and its coaching staff and jumped off the bandwagon following the loss at Super Bowl XLIX;

WHEREAS, the Seahawks displayed unsportsmanlike conduct throughout the game through boorish touchdown celebrations that even the broadcasting network refused to show and by instigating a brawl at the conclusion of the game;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, Governor of the state of Washington, do hereby call for

and I urge all 12s to recognize that this is just a game by which is in part funded by the taxpayers of this State to pay for a stadium where the Seattle Seahawks play which is owned by a billionaire.

Signed this 2nd day of February, 2015

Governor Jay Inslee
